

IMPORT CONDITIONS FOR LIVE FISH INTO KENYA

1. The consignment is accompanied by an international veterinary health certificate issued by the veterinary authority of the exporting country attesting that;
  - a. The exporting country has an official fish health surveillance scheme according to the procedures described in OIE Diagnostic manual for Aquatic Animal diseases;
  - b. The country or zone of origin of the fish consignment is free from the pathogens causing the diseases listed in the OIE Aquatic Animal Health code;
  - c. The fish are free from any clinical signs of infectious or communicable diseases.
2. The consignment must be accompanied by this import permit.
3. The permit is valid for ninety days and for one consignment only.